

FMCS

FEDERAL MEDIATION & CONCILIATION SERVICE

SPEAKER'S BIO

LAWRENCE SEDROWSKI

COMMISSIONER,
FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICE

Larry Sedrowski is a Commissioner in the Saginaw, MI field office of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS). In this position, Mr. Sedrowski is primarily responsible for the successful resolution of private-sector collective bargaining negotiations. He is tasked with customer outreach, relationship development and training, communication improvement, and bargaining process education.

Mr. Sedrowski began his FMCS career in 2003. He has ably assisted labor and management in hundreds of contract settlements. His involvement in a wide array of industries includes manufacturing, retail service, power generation, transportation, warehousing, construction, higher education, and health care. He has mediated in both the private and public sectors, and provided settlement expertise for grievance administration.

Prior to the FMCS, Mr. Sedrowski spent more than 21 years in building trades labor relations. His efforts have been recognized in various area economic development councils and university settings. He has earned degrees at Oakland University and Saginaw Valley State University.